Prof. Gilles KEPEL is a Senior Fellow at Institut Universitaire de France and teaches at Sciences Po in Paris. He studied the contemporary Arab world and Islam in France throughout his academic career. He authored a dozen books, many of them translated into English and German (Die Spirale Des Terrors Piper Verlag, 2009). His last two books in French: Passion arabe/Journal 2011-2013 (The Arab Passion/ Diaries 2011-2013) and Passion française - Les Voix des cités (The French Passion/The Votes in immigrant cities), were published in 2013 and 2014 by Gallimard.

Pr. Gilles Kepel, Membre Senior de l'Institut Universitaire de France et Professeur à Sciences Po (Paris) a consacré sa carrière à l'étude du monde arabe contemporain et de l'islam en France. Il est l'auteur d'une douzaine d'ouvrages dont les deux derniers Passion arabe /Journal 2011-2013, et Passion Française / Les voix des cités, sont réédités le 21 novembre par les éditions Gallimard en coffret avec un supplément inédit Passion en Kabylie, qui se déroule en septembre 2014 et resitue le contexte de l'émergence de Daesh et du meurtre d'Hervé Gourdel.

Dr. Asiem El Difraoui
Senior Fellow

Institute of Media and Communication Policy

Moritz Behrendt

Co-publisher of zenith - Journal for the Orient
Journalist

Dr. Asiem El Difraoui is a political scientist, economist and documentary film director. Currently he is a Senior Fellow at the Institute for Media and Communication Policy (IfM). Together with the editor in chief of Zenith, he is the co-founder of CANDID, an independent foundation which aims to foster intercultural dialogue and research on the Arab World. Previously he was a Research Associate at the German Institute for International and Security Affairs in Berlin (SWP) and a lecturer at Sciences Po. As chief editor of IP Productions, a Paris based television agency specialized on the Middle East, he received numerous international awards, including the 2012 Erico Fulchignoni Award of the UNESCO for "Tahrir 2011". El Difraoui obtained his doctorate as well as his M.Phil. from Sciences Po. His PhD dissertation "Al-Qaida par l'image. La prophétie du martyr" (PUF 2013) has become a French reference book, which is currently translated into German. Most recently he has been revisiting the troubling situation in Egypt ("Ein Neues Ägypten? Eine Reise durch ein Land im Aufruhr", Körber Edition 2013). Also a state-of-the-art textbook on Arab media systems, which he is editing together with Carola Richter, is to be published in spring 2015.

Moritz Behrendt works as a journalist for print and radio. He studied history and journalism in Hamburg, Dakar and Beirut. He is one of the publishers of the magazine zenith which focuses on the indepth-analysis of political and cultural affairs in the MENA-Region. Also he regularly works for the public-service radio station Deutschlandradio Kultur.

Together with colleagues from zenith he launched the media and research project Muwajahat al-Madi - confronted past" in Egypt and Tunisia in 2013 (www.confronted-past.org).
